WELCOME

Welcome to everyone at our worship today especially to those who have come to hear their banns of marriage read, to visitors and newcomers - please introduce yourself if you are new or a visitor.

If you usually receive Communion in your own church, please do so here. If not, you are welcome to come to the altar rail for a Blessing, and if you carry a book with you the priest will know not to offer you the bread and wine.

The 9.30 am service is screened live on 'www.thesundayervice.org'; no members of the congregation will be seen on film.

Please tell a sidesperson before the service if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

A T-loop is provided for hearing aid users.

For our younger members in St Lawrence:

Seekers for those aged 3 to 10 years (start in church), not 2nd Sunday each month;

Creche in the Breakspear Room;

Quiet Corner in church

If you have come to the service at 9.30 am, please stay for coffee, tea, juice and biscuits in the hall after the service.

A collection is taken at each main service. If you are a UK tax payer, please complete a gift aid envelope.

This money is fundamental to the life of the church: its ministry, mission and charitable giving.

As we receive no income from the Government or any other external body, we are reliant on the generosity of the community and our fundraising endeavours to ensure that the important work of the parish continues.

Many regular members of the congregation give by direct debit and so put nothing in the bag as it passes by.

If you would like to set up a regular direct debit, please ask for a Parish Giving Scheme pack.

THE PRAYERS AND BIBLE READINGS

Bibles are available in the book rack by the door where you entered.

COLLECT: Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 2.1-5

Bible page 783

Ezekiel is called to prophesy to the Israelites in exile in Babylon. As with all the readings today, there is an uncompromising starkness to the call: obeying God is not always easy. The people, caught up in pride and idolatry and sin will be reluctant to hear Ezekiel's message. Yet Ezekiel must speak, and declare to them the words of the Lord.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 12.2-10

Bible page 182

Paul has had to rebut critics in the Corinthian Church on several counts. Here, it is clear that the Corinthians have judged Paul's religious experience to be lacking. He assures them that he is in a position to boast of an amazing spiritual experience (although the passage begins by talking about someone else, by verse 7 it is clear that Paul refers to himself) but he will not go into details, for that is not what gives him authority. Instead, Paul talks of the suffering he has endured: his weakness leads him to depend more fully on God, and in so doing he is able to witness to the power of God more fully than if he made boasts about himself.

GOSPEL

Mark 6.1-13

Bible page 38

As Israel rejected the prophets of the past, so now Jesus faces rejection by the people of his hometown. Must it always be difficult to perceive without defensiveness and cynicism the words of a prophet close to home? Yet Jesus does not let his rejection trouble him: he commissions the twelve to go out, preaching the gospel of repentance and reconciliation, healing and overcoming evil. They too are not guaranteed a good reception, but this is the message and the ministry they, and we, are called to proclaim.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER: God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
